AID YOUNG CENTER PROGRAMS

This year the Ain Dah Center became a member of the Minnesota’s Circles of Support for young Native American children to provide culturally appropriate housing. The Center is committed to providing accessible, culturally responsive services resulting in relevant and achievable case plans, returning children home sooner and decreasing the amount of time spent within the Center.

In addition, Ramsey County now has an ICWA Court Room for families that includes quilts, blankets, and sacred medicines in an environment that is more intimate and inclusive of Native traditions. We are so grateful to the leaders and staff at Ramsey County for partnering with us!
